

Signing a contract for the detection of misfires and unexploded ordnance in the Błędowska Desert

Written by

Friday, 24 February 2012 08:10 - Last Updated Friday, 24 February 2012 08:18

On the 22nd February the contract was signed with the contractor selected in a tender for area preparation for the introduction of active conservation treatments - detecting the presence of unexploded bombs and misfires and intervention area clearing.

The first works in the Bledowska Desert will begin soon.